In every November since 1990, the normally sleepy town of Wangaratta in country Victoria erupts as the Wangaratta Festival of Jazz sweeps through, in what has become one of the most successful music festivals in Australia.

The festival is known and respected throughout the international jazz community and has attracted the biggest names in the business, both international and Australian.

Now for the very first time, all of the highlights of the first decade of this remarkable event have been captured on one incredible 2 CD set.

This 19 track collection embodies all of the excitement of Wangaratta and makes you feel like you're there.

From the international stable comes Steve Lacy, Horace Tapscott, Odean Pope, Kurt Elling and more, artists with glowing reputations both here and abroad.

Importantly, the CD set devotes a large amount of playing time to local talent; from established names like Bernie McGann, Ted Vining, Mike Nock and Vince Jones to up and coming talent of the likes of Andrew Robson, James Greening and Sam Keevers. One hundred and forty minutes of pure class.

So there you have it. For those of you who have been to Wangaratta for the festival should be able to revisit some musical highs here. The rest of you, hopefully, will see why so many critics, musicians and fans have had so many good things to say about the Festival.

Wangaratta Live: 10 Years of Australia's Greatest Jazz Festival is essential listening for all jazz fans, from the hardcore devotee to the casual listener. A remarkable event on an amazing album.
