

KENNY WERNER MONASH SESSIONS

In August 2014 The Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music at Monash University hosted American jazz pianist Kenny Werner as part of its Artist in Residency program.

According to Associate Professor Rob Burke, "Werner brought a 'New York intensity' to this performance. With complexity in compositions and rhythms, he pushed our students to perform at the edge of their ability and creative powers". What resulted is this album, a continuation of excellence demonstrated throughout the entire Monash Sessions series.

Produced by Robert Burke

Engineered and mastered by Ross Cockle.

Recorded at the Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music Auditorium.

Mastering at Sing Sing Recording Studios.

Special thanks thanks to Fred Wallace, Damien Boyle, and the staff at the Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music.

Brought to you by the jazz team at Monash University: Robert Burke, Paul Williamson, Jordan Murray, Tony Gould and Paul Grabowsky.
